Everything You Expect In A Spring Suit.

An overdose of quality in a Suit, with the absence of style in it makes a poor suit for any man.

Reverse the conditions and it's equally as deplorable.

Of course no man knowingly, ever buys a suit like this, he buys it without knowing it.

Every feature you expect and desire, you get in the suit we'll sell you, good quality, best style, better tailoring, newest patterns, coupled with our guarantee, that if it isn't right we will make it right with you.

Spring Suits, $15 to $35.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters. If weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by A. M. Hughes, Louisa, Ky.

In commemoration of the battle of Pt. Pleasant fought in 1774, a massive column, 84 feet high and 24 feet square at the base, will be erected at Pt. Pleasant during the summer months and will be ready for unveiling on the 10th day of October, 135 years after the date of the battle when General Andrew Lewis at the head of the army of Virginia routed the confederate tribes of Indian Warriors.

Huntington, W. Va., April 14.—Charles Davis, proprietor of the Huntington Hotel, was shot twice this evening by Colonel Charles B. Taylor, a retired coal operator of this city. Davis is in a critical condition, both bullets having penetrated his abdomen. Colonel Taylor was arrested and is now under bond. A mystery surrounds the shooting, but it is believed a woman is back of the trouble. The affair occurred at the apartments of Colonel Taylor in the aristocratic portion of the city. Mr. Davis was removed to the hospital and Colonel Taylor immediately surrendered.

A number of Pikevillians having imbibed too freely of the candidate "boozie" got their war paint on and made "Rome howl" yesterday. Several free-for-all fights occurred. Some of the warlike tribe got in the lock-up, while others are at large, snuffing flood and imbibing more "first water," and there is little hope that the town will settle down in its usual placid and peaceful ways until after this contest of "boozie" and "boodie" is over.—Pike, Cor. Independent.

James S. Jarvis, of Olive Hill, Carter county, met death Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in a tragic manner. He was a photographer and was trying to take a picture when he met his sorrowful death.

The Highland stone crusher at the Olive Hill Brick Company's plant was the object of the picture, and in trying to arrange his camera so as to take a good view, he stepped in the path of a C. & O. train. The train that was the messenger of death was C. & O. No. 23, of the Lexington division. He was instantly killed.

The Oil Stove With a CABINET TOP

The New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove differs from all other oil stoves.—It has a CABINET TOP. This means you can keep dishes and utensils within easy reach while cooking, and can keep food hot after removing it from the blaze.

From its wonderful burners to its racks for holding towels the

is without equal. Its principle of concentrated heat means that the work can be done quickly and without the kitchen being heated to an unbearable degree. Can be lighted instantly and turned "high," "low" or "medium" at will. Three sizes. With or without Cabinet Top. At your dealer's, or write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp comes as near lamp perfection as it is possible to get. Gives a clear, bright light that reaches the farthest corner of a good-sized living-room. Well made throughout of nickel-plated brass; perfectly safe and very ornamental. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.
